King's College Luksic Hall

Wilkes-Barre, PA

Project Date: Spring 2007

Status: Complete

The Luksic Hall renovation was complete in time for students to move in for the spring 2007 semester. This project was an extensive interior renovation to upgrade the existing single rooms to suites with shared bathrooms between two units. The renovation included exterior restoration, new windows, new mechanical system with individual suite temperature controls, new elevator and relocation of facilities office.

The renovation provided housing for 44 students, which was conveniently located to the center campus.
