Mansfield Free Public Library

Mansfield, PA

Project Date: 2006

Status: Ongoing

The library was formed in 1901, and an addition was made in 1911.

This study is being completed as the first step in an exterior restoration project. Currently in a fundraising stage, the exterior masonry and windows were investigated and targeted as primary areas of concern.

The preservation plan includes some very limited re-pointing and an extensive wood window sash restoration.
